Are you looking for a way to raise funds and significantly increase your organization's visibility? Baking with Friends offers an ideal opportunity for youth groups, schools and non-profits to engage in fundraising while providing real benefits to the community.

Baking with Friends is a resource created by the Home Baking Association, a national non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the many benefits of home baking. The book develops a wide range of life skills including reading literacy, science and math. Baking with Friends offers an excellent way to build relationships within families, with peers and between generations. Baking together can lead to hours of fun in the kitchen, and positively enhance a child's life in profound ways.

Historically, cookbooks and food related items have been the most popular items used in fund-raising programs. Continue reading to learn how easy it is to use Baking with Friends to fund your next project.
